Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Thirty-Third Weekend in Ordinary Time November 13th and 14th, 2021

Endings and Beginnings

This weekend marks the end of ordinary time, the 33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time in our Church year. An ending.

Some endings, though difficult, are not so difficult to deal with. Every year I know those leaves from the maple trees in our yard are going to change colors, dry up and fall to the ground for me to rake to the curb. The growing season has thus ended. But new leaves will grow from the buds in the springtime, so there will be a beginning from this ending, with bright green leaves that are full of life.

Some endings are a little harder to deal with, at least for me. The Milwaukee Brewers' sudden ending season, after so much promise and hope that this would be a World Series team, was a harder ending for me to handle. But there will be a new season in April with a new beginning, and perhaps a World Series championship in 2022. Hey, the Bucks have shown them the way, right?! And this past weekend we saw the end of a winning streak by our Green Bay Packers. Yet we may have seen the beginning of a new quarterback era with Jordan Love. Thankfully many of us were able to console each other at the Res Packer Party and Chili Cook-off in the Gathering Area. (For a little extra entertainment, visit the parish Facebook page to see our own Golden Girl, Sue Kane, relive her days on the sidelines to the Packer Fight Song Go You Packers Go!)

Some endings are more difficult to handle because of the magnitude of the change. This past week we lost my dad, Dennis, after 87 years of living on this earth. This kind of ending is hard. When my Mom passed into eternal life a year ago in August, my dad seemed to miss her so much that a decline was almost inevitable. During the last couple of months, we saw a pronounced change in my dad's ability to communicate, walk without falling, and track a conversation. It was time. However, the ending seemingly took forever. But he was ready, and so were we when his time came to go to the Lord. Now a new beginning is upon him. In faith, we believe that not only is he spending eternity with our loving God, but he is also reuniting with my Mom, his parents, and his siblings who went before him. My hunch is that they are having a huge Austrian feast in heaven and enjoying some really great beer!

Our Church year winds down and comes to an end. But in the next couple of weeks, there will be a new beginning—one that we call Advent. As we begin to say goodbye to this Church year, maybe it is time to take stock in how we have grown this year:

- Have we grown in our faith? What do we understand differently about our faith-life than we did last year at this time?
- Has the pandemic shifted anything in terms of our spirituality? How do we spend time in prayer?
- As we look to a new Church year, what is one resolution, of sorts, that we commit ourselves to in growing deeper in our faith?

As you look at your own life, what has ended this year? What has begun anew? And where do you experience hope and joy in these new beginnings?

As they say, everything must come to an end. But the beginning is just around the corner! Keep your eyes open for the possibilities and potential of a new year!

Tony

No Shave November

Who has the wackiest whiskers, Fr. Tom, Wayne, or Tony?

Cast your vote by placing shaving supplies in the box of your choice in the main church greeting area. There, you can also see the progress of how their beards are growing. All donations will go to the NEW Community and St. John the Evangelist Homeless Shelters.

Tree of Giving

Over the years, the generosity of Resurrection has been much appreciated by the agencies and families it has helped at Christmas time. Your stewardship of sharing and the spirit of Christmas is truly present in our parish.

This year, we will be accepting checks made out to Resurrection. Please designate the donation to the "Tree of Giving" on the memo line on your check. Donations need to be returned to the parish office by November 28, 2021.

All donations will be divided amongst the agencies unless specified. To see a list of agencies go to www.gbres.org/treeofgiving.

Thank you for your participation. These agencies are experiencing more need than ever during these challenging times. If you have any questions, please contact one of the "Tree of Giving" Committee Members.

Stewards of Vocation

As we close vocations week 2021, have you identified your vocation?

Jesus does not call us as nameless people in a faceless crowd. He calls us individually, by name. Each one of us—clergy, religious, layperson; married, single; adult, child—has a personal vocation.

God intends each one of us to play a unique role in carrying out the divine plan.

What is your vocation?

How are you living your vocation?

A Promise to Protect—A Pledge to Heal

If you are or know someone that is a victim/survivor of sexual abuse, there are several things you can do:

 If you believe someone is in danger or know of current abuse involving a minor or a vulnerable adult, please call 911 immediately.

 You can receive free, confidential advice, assistance, support, and advocacy through the Family Services Sexual Assault Center by calling (920) 436-8899.

 Contact your local law enforcement agency, for help in determining options for making a criminal complaint.

 Contact a child or at-risk adult protection agency, abuse hotline, or mental health professional.

Resources and information can be found at the Wisconsin Coalition Against Sexual Assault website:
www.wcasa.org/survivors/service-providers
